Greeting and Call to Worship

Phil Majors

We do not live by bread alone,

so we gather to feast on God's sustaining word.

We come at the Spirit's leading to offer ourselves in service to Christ.

Come, find strength for the journey.

We will worship the one, true God.

Thanks be to God

Psalm 32

setting by Hal Hopson

God is kind and gra - cious. God heals the bro - ken spir - it.

Blest is the one whose sin is forgiv'n, and whose wrongs are put far away.

Happy is the one free of guilt, whose spirit is pure, whose words are the truth. REFRAIN

When I refused to confess all my sin, my body wasted away.

Day and night my sins were before me; my strength dried up like the summer's heat. REFRAIN

Then I declared my sin to the Lord, and my heavy guilt I confessed;

God forgave all my transgressions; my sin and guilt were taken away. REFRAIN

A Reading from the Gospels: Matthew 4:1-11

Phil Majors

Then Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. He fasted forty days and forty nights, and afterwards he was famished. The tempter came and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command these stones to become loaves of bread." But he answered,

"It is written, 'One does not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God.'"

Then the devil took him to the holy city and placed him on the pinnacle of the temple, saying to him, “If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down; for it is written, ‘He will command his angels concerning you,’ and ‘On their hands they will bear you up, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone.’” Jesus said to him,

“Again it is written, ‘Do not put the Lord your God to the test.’”

Again, the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their splendor; and he said to him, “All these I will give you, if you will fall down and worship me.” Jesus said to him,

“Away with you, Satan! for it is written, ‘Worship the Lord your God, and serve only him.’”

Then the devil left him, and suddenly angels came and ministered to him.

Offertory Anthem

Lord, for Thy Tender Mercies' Sake

by Richard Farrant

The Sanctuary Choir

*Lord, for Thy tender mercies' sake, lay not our sins to our charge,
But forgive that is past, and give us grace to amend our sinful lives,
To decline from sin and incline to virtue,
That we may walk with a perfect heart before Thee now and evermore.*

- Lidley's Prayers, 16th century

Prayers of the People

Phil Majors

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Phil Majors and Alice Tremaine

*Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.
For great is the gift of grace, and great is the love that surrounds those who trust in the Lord.
