A Reading from Hebrew Scripture

Alex Lockridge

In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lofty; and the hem of his robe filled the temple. Seraphs were in attendance above him; each had six wings: with two they covered their faces, and with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew. And one called to another and said: "Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory." The pivots on the thresholds shook at the voices of those who called, and the house filled with smoke.

And I said: “Woe is me! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts!” Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding a live coal that had been taken from the altar with a pair of tongs. The seraph touched my mouth with it and said: “Now that this has touched your lips, your guilt has departed and your sin is blotted out.” Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, “Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?” And I said, “Here am I; send me!”

- Isaiah 6:1-8

Response

HYFRYDOL

during the singing of the response, children are dismissed for Children’s Church

Heaven opened to Isaiah, showing him God’s glorious throne:

Lord of might, high and exalted, temple flowing with his robe.

Seraphim flew all around him, humbled at the holy sight.

As they circled they were singing, calling out with all their might.

Seraphim continue singing; cherubim still lift their praise.

Earth and all its creatures worship; moon and stars are still amazed.

Now above creation’s chorus comes another fervent cry:

All of earth’s redeemed are singing, “Glory to the Lord on high!”

One day heaven will be opened and before the Savior’s throne,

Saints from every time and nation will begin their endless song:

“To our God of all salvation, to the high and holy Lamb,

To the blessed Holy Spirit be forever praise. Amen!”

- Rwandan hymn; para. Greg Scheer

A Reading from the Epistles

Jeremiah Banks

Brothers and sisters, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh—for if you live according to the flesh, you will die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. For all who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God. For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received a spirit of adoption. When we cry, “Abba! Father!” it is that very Spirit bearing witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ—if, in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him.

- Romans 8:12-17

Prayers of the People

Alex Lockridge

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

*Here, we have been in the presence of God.
Here, we have heard the word of the Lord.
Here, the Lord is asking, "Whom shall I send?"
So go from this place having been changed.
Go from this place ready to serve.
Go from this place with these words on your lips,
"Here am I, send me." Amen.*

Today’s organ music is from a library of more than 1,000 digitized hymns, anthems, and solo-organ music that Gayle Majors recorded over the last several years. We are thankful for Gayle’s life, for her 36-year tenure as Organist for First Baptist Church, and for this fine legacy that she has left for us.
