Call to Worship

Lisa Harrison

Into the dry and desolate places of our lives, God brings salvation.

The desert rejoices and blossoms, the wilderness teems with life.

Sorrow and sighing will flee away –

Let us come into God's presence with singing!

+Hymn 102

Joy to the World! The Lord Is Come

ANTIOCH

+Prayer of Confession

Paul Sims

Advent God, You enter into our weary world to lift up the lowly and fill the hungry, to establish equity throughout the earth.

Yet, like perplexed prophets and doubting disciples, we scarcely believe that You can right the world. We see suffering and sorrow and sin and wonder if creation is beyond repair.

But You hold out healing, wholeness, and joy.

You promise to drive out despair and free us from debilitating fear.

Broaden our imaginations, that we might conceive of communities where all people thrive and embody Your vision of shalom.

Expand our hearts, that we might see the extraordinary in our midst and embrace the everlasting joy You bring.

Make us prophets of the world You are bringing to birth, that we might prepare a way before You and welcome You with gladness! Amen.

CAROL

Come praise the Lord with all our lives, sing thanks and praise each day.

No other One is worth our hope, for God alone can save.

How blest are those who hope in You, Creator of all things.

You heal the sick, You feed the poor, Your presence justice brings.

The blind find sight, the fallen hope, You set the prisoner free.

You give the homeless living space, but fell the proud like trees.

Your reign, O Lord, will never end. How can we count its days?

All generations young and old shall live to sing Your praise.

- Fred Anderson

A Reading from the Gospels: Matthew 11:2-6

Jeremiah Banks

Now when Jesus had finished instructing his twelve disciples, he went on from there to teach and proclaim his message in their cities. When John heard in prison what the Messiah was doing, he sent word by his disciples and said to him, "Are you the One who is to come, or are we to wait for another?" Jesus answered them,

"Go and tell John what you hear and see: the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the poor have good news brought to them. And blessed is anyone who takes no offense at me."

As they went away, Jesus began to speak to the crowds about John: "What did you go out into the wilderness to look at? A reed shaken by the wind? What then did you go out to see? Someone dressed in soft robes? Look, those who wear soft robes are in royal palaces. What then did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet. This is the One about whom it is written,

'See, I am sending my messenger ahead of you, who will prepare your way before you.'

"Truly I tell you, among those born of women no one has arisen greater than John the Baptist; yet the least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he."

Today's organ music is from a library of more than 1,000 digitized hymns, anthems, and solo-organ music that Gayle Majors recorded over the last several years. We are thankful for Gayle's life, for her 36-year tenure as Organist for First Baptist Church, and for this fine legacy that she has left for us.
