Thank you to FBC:

It is Monday, September 10. Six people are in our house packing up our belongings. It’s a bit overwhelming. It means it really is here. We will be unpacking and setting up a new place to live by this weekend.

We were talking about how this was for us 6 years ago this past Easter. We were moving to the “foreign land” of Corbin. Larry had already been at the hospital since November of 2011 and he was ready for the weekend and some week-day commuting to be over. We only knew a couple of people here outside of Larry’s work. We knew we needed a church community to help us get acclimated to the larger community. We also needed a safe place where we could be ourselves and where relationships were not defined by Larry’s job.

We said we would take the time to visit other churches, but we didn’t. We visited FBC (actually before we moved) and never left. We visited one other church because a long-time friend was pastor, but we knew this was home.

Thank you. You have been loving and welcoming friends, and a graceful and challenging faith community. It has been more than we ever anticipated. Because of you, and many in the larger community we have met through you, we feel at home in Corbin. And to the Young Adults, thank you for including us and inviting us into your families. It has been a deep joy to see your kids born and to watch them (and you) grow.

We don’t know where the future leads us, but our hearts will always be here because of the relationships in this church that have sustained and encouraged us.

With love,

Larry and Mary Ida Gray

Your Help is needed!
Summer is almost gone, and our Homecoming event is approaching quickly. With all our busy schedules, we do not have time to schedule a fall cleanup day as planned. A board with tasks to be completed is available in the office. You may “choose a chore” from that board. We want to have everything as clean as possible for the homecoming, so please make an extra effort to have your chore completed by September 22nd. – Ann Hacker
